From the President

Janet Ferreira

Writing this article from lockdown seems somewhat surreal having been living in a bubble within a bubble for the past 10 months. As I enter the last 6 months of my presidency I can hear the clock loudly ticking as I feel the pressure to achieve the things I set out to do in the hopes of leaving some sort of legacy in my wake.

We began the 2020/21 season with a bustling Opening Day and Junior Open Day in October. We had a full house with many visitors attending and a jubilant atmosphere with an array of food and spritz on tap! The season was officially opened by our Patron Bill Marmion, Major Sponsor Gordon Davies and the Vice President of Tennis West Brett Patten. It was also lovely to have Alistair Brown attend to unveil the bench donated in memory of his father Douglas. Junior Open Day once again exceeded our expectations thanks to Warren and his team and members of the committee for pulling this off. It took 200 sausages, a variety of activities and a well-stocked bar to quell the storm of children and parents who descended on the club.

The following morning we hosted Tennis Seniors State Champs Doubles events which coincided with junior pre-season league training, creating another hive of activity as many availed themselves of our great facilities. In mid-November we hosted Reabold Tennis Club for our annual 'social' tennis event which was a glorious afternoon of great tennis and good company, in spite of the fact Reabold were victorious. Our league season got underway the following week with Nedlands being represented by 18 senior and 18 junior teams in Tennis West competition.

The first of our Club Champs Round Robin events at the end of November was hotly contested but unfortunately rained off in the latter stages. This caused a bit of a furore and required some players to return the following week to settle the score with sheep stations up for grabs. Our second event in early January, with over 50 players, was less eventful but nonetheless embraced by all participants. Christmas at the club this year had an Australian flavour with glazed ham and salads on offer.

With the start of 2021 our preparations for our annual Australian Ranking and Money Tournament began in earnest. We were very excited to be holding this event again as, due to Covid, there had been no such tournaments since March last year.

Many thanks to Gordon Davies who once again stepped up as our naming rights sponsor to provide the prize money for the AMT and to Richard Choong for donating the Trophies. The event ran over 4 days from 18th to 21st January attracting 300 entries with about 400 matches played over the course. As Tournament Director, I was very ably assisted by Nat Smalberger, Mel English, Ali Webster and Barb Nowak, who managed the canteen. Many others volunteered their time, donated baked goods, meals & other supplies, loaned equipment and provided general support to help make this event another great success. It is always a delight to see our facilities being used to their full potential and so many people soaking up the wonderful aspects of our club. The much needed funds raised through this event definitely make it worthwhile however, it wouldn't be possible without club members putting up their hands to help. Hot on its heels our Australia Day Tennis & Brunch was well supported and a vibrant morning. After a couple of sets, champagne and orange juice went down a treat!

For the past 4 months we have been running a new Young Adult Social tennis initiative for both members and non-members which is proving to be popular, along with Beginners social and a Summer event for parents of junior club players and Tennis HQ clients. We are always looking for new ways to embrace a broader demographic and entice lapsed players back to the game.

Young Adult Social Tennis Christmas Event

We have recently applied for a Community Sporting & Recreation Facilities Fund Grant for the upgrading of our synthetic courts however, we are not overly optimistic as this process is extremely competitive, the project is not regarded as a high priority by the Department of Sport & Recreation and the life cycle costs of synthetic courts relative to plexipave are very high. We are also in the process of applying for a Heritage Grant for some structural works and painting required on the club house and seeking a contribution from the City of Nedlands for refurbishing our kitchen.

With a couple of months of the summer season remaining now is the time to take advantage of our beautiful grass courts which are playing well. You will be glad to hear that this year we will be keeping 6 grass courts open throughout the winter which will alleviate court shortages at peak times and provide us with more options.

Finally I would like to encourage you all to think about having a go in our upcoming Club Championships over the Labour Day long weekend. This may well be your moment to shine or at least stack yourself up against your fellow members!

Captain's Report

Carolyn Choong

What is Saturday social tennis and how does it run? These are questions I have been asked in recent months when I come across people who are keen to get back tennis after a long hiatus or simply people who have been in ah .. those glorious basket feed drills and classes for a while. The thought of coming to social tennis by themselves almost always make them break out in a sweat and I can almost hear their hearts beating a little faster and louder! Let me share my very first Saturday social experience .. it was about 4.5 years ago when I was introduced into the club by Judy and Kon Kozak. I had literally thought tennis was once a week of basket feed drills, a bit of running around the court, come back and repeat next week. It was after all my world of tennis for 2 years.

Then I discovered social tennis. It's like changing dancing partners every 30 minutes and wow they feed you food and buy you drinks afterwards. How much fun?? Lucia Agnello and Ann Solar were the first 2 ladies I met on court that day. Very encouraging, warm and welcoming. I came back the next week and the week after and most Saturdays since then. In a time when all I wanted to do was to improve my tennis, this social Saturday crew have been my biggest support and encouragement! In case I am biased (who wouldn't be, right?) here are a few of our happy Saturday vegemites sharing their views:

Describe your very first Saturday social tennis experience:

"It was petrifying! Took me a year to pluck up the courage to come down. Had lots of lessons before I felt able to face the group and play on Saturdays. I remember one of my first matches was with Julie Lilburne who was so lovely and supportive and made me feel very welcome. Absolutely loved it and couldn't believe it had taken me so long to get down there in the first place." Rachel Palmer

"Trying a new sports club by yourself can be quite intimidating but everyone was very welcoming and introduced themselves. I had only just started playing tennis and this was the first time I'd ever played on grass so I had a lot of fun. No one got upset when I made mistakes (e.g getting aced by Gordon Davies twice in the same game). I had the same enjoyable experience each Saturday I visited so it was an easy decision become a member." Alex Tang

"It was so long ago perhaps 1995 or 1996 - hard to remember ..I was a very quiet introvert in those days believe it or not. Very nervous, I only joined because Vicki was invited by then president Helen Morgan to play midweek ladies Div 1. I thought if she is changing clubs, I should follow suit. Membership were much larger in those days, took a little while to make friends but I've never looked back. Even though i live further away now would never want to change clubs." Ken Houston aka our bar stocker for the last 20 years!

"Coming to a new club is always a daunting task. As a newbie who hadn't played tennis regularly since high school (over 20 years ago), my rust really showed. Speed and relative youth could not overcome the rust. Nevertheless despite the constant errors, I was warmly welcomed with smiles and encouragement, leading to enjoyable games paired with partners of various skill and ages. Nedlands Tc is particularly social and inclusive, which led me to come to social again and eventually join the club." Senq Lee

"I used it as warm up for my Saturday doubles match! That was how it all started for me. As a past member (and short lived committee member) it was very nice to be welcomed back to Nedlands for a few weeks of social tennis when I came back to Perth for holidays recently. I was lucky enough to be welcomed and included by all members. Due to COVID and other circumstances, I have not had the opportunity to play much during 2020, my tennis level is nowhere was it once was, all members were supportive and encouraging both on and off the court. I am excited to return to Nedlands Tennis Club when I return back to Perth." Kate Barblett

After having the 2019/2020 summer league season cut short by the COVID lockdown all league players relished the opportunity of competing against players from other clubs during the 2020/2021 summer league rounds held before Christmas.

The pre-Christmas matches provided some interesting, if not inspiring tennis, and more importantly were followed by some buzzing socialising at the club on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The Wednesday ladies all elected to play in a new 8 set competition rather than the traditional 12 set competition thereby allowing plenty of time to enjoy lunch at various local establishments.

After the completion of 9 or 10 of 14 rounds 9 of our 18 teams are well positioned, sitting in the top four on their competition's ladder, with other teams still having the opportunity to make a run to the finals.

After the summer break league players were eagerly anticipating the second half rounds, and were particularly interested in the outcome of the 3 derby matches scheduled between teams in the same competition namely the Wednesday Ladies' team Morgan v team Nowak match, the Wednesday Night Men's team Clarke v team Dodd match and the team Lilburne v team Mofflin match.

Unfortunately, despite great local interest in these derbies, lack of enthusiasm from the tennis gods resulted in all matches being postponed due to the COVID lockdown.

This was especially disappointing for team Morgan whose members had been looking forward to wearing their leopard skin uniform, especially sourced from Queensland, in a bid to scare off team Nowak who had all come dressed in black on the previous encounter.

At the time of writing the plan is to play the round 10 midweek fixtures in the week following the 14th round with the semi-finals and finals to be delayed by a week.

However in these unpredictable times we need to just be grateful for and try and enjoy any match we are able to play.

Welcome back to another year of tennis! With the new world that we are ever coming to terms with, it is great when you have places and activities which allow you to feel like “normal”. Tennis has been a great steady ship in the storms, with our ability to stay socially distant whilst playing, it has allowed us to stay connected with our tennis families.

Here at TennisHQ we are passionate about all aspects of tennis and for every player to get the most out of our sport. We will always aim to provide a comfortable, safe environment for you to play tennis. During the various stages of lockdown and restrictions in 2020, we were able to tailor our coaching programs and services to maximise playing opportunities for all of our members, clients and the general public. As we have seen recently, the changes can be sudden and we hope to always be able to find flexibility and adaptability to the conditions we are under and always provide a reliable outlet for your sporting options.

TERM 1 “THE BUSY TERM”

As a parent, I understand how hectic term one can be! Here at the club we will be restarting our coaching programs after our six weeks of holiday programs. Finding time for your children’s out of school activities is always challenging at the start of the new year as class times change, school obligations are outlined and juggling taxi runs for multiple kids at a time! Summer is our busy time and despite having no Hopman Cup or ATP Cup in Perth this year, we trust that you will still be watching the summer of tennis on TV and cheering on your favourite Aussie players and marvelling at the best player in the world.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

Junior league kicks off again for the second half of the season and I’m sure winter sports will start their sign ups and pre-season training this term too. We will of course be opening our Winter Junior League nominations during this term in preparation for terms two and three.

If you are looking for more court time and match practice, make sure you sign up for Singles ladder for green and yellow players and Team Tennis for Orange, Green and Yellow players.

JUNIOR CLUB CHAMPS

The end of the summer of tennis always culminates in our Club Championships, we hope all of our junior league players will participate in this event. There will be round robin singles and doubles events for all levels of players. Stay tuned for more details about playing dates and sign ups

JUNIOR CLUB

We are back on Fridays, 4.30 – 5.30pm, all players welcome! Remember that Junior Club tennis is free for members! Non members are most welcome too at a cost of $12 per child, this includes tennis and food! The bar is always cheerfully manned by one of our club volunteers, it’s the best way to end the week and kick off the weekend.

FAREWELL COACH ADAM

It has come to the sad time where we must say goodbye to one of our popular coaches; Adam Falla. Adam has been a wonderful asset to our coaching team over the years and we will miss his energy and passion for coaching. In 2020 he completed his Masters in Education and has been offered a full time teaching position. We wish him the best for his future endeavours and for his new family life ahead. You may still catch him around the club helping us out with coaching when time permits, but for now send him your best regards.

TIP OF THE MONTH – ACCEPTING ERRORS

The most common finish to a rally in tennis is an unforced error, around 70 percent of the time, no matter what level of player you are! So how can this be? Surely better players make fewer errors? The most common reason people come for tennis lessons is the desire to make less errors on court.

The truth is that the quality of the made shots is not accounted for in the search for error reduction. If you compare yourself to a player above your level who you may aspire to be more like, they probably make fewer errors than you do, when they play at your level. However put them against a player at their level and you will find they will make errors with the same frequency you will when you play someone at your level.

The key to understanding this is that as you improve as a player, you also increase your expectations. Once you can hit the ball harder, deeper, closer to lines, you aspire to hit the ball harder, deeper and even closer to lines. With the desire to improve and play at the new level comes an element of risk and a loss of control to perform the more difficult strokes.

The final important point is understanding WHEN errors occur. A beginner player might make an error every second shot, an intermediate player every fourth shot and an advanced player every sixth shot as an example. So we can see if we set up some dummy match scenarios how errors might play out.

Beginner vs Beginner : we would expect an error every second shot. Average rally length 1-2 strokes.

Beginner vs Intermediate : the intermediate can generally hit three strokes in a row but the beginner cannot, so we expect the beginner to make an error off of one of the three strokes hit in by the intermediate. Average rally length 2-4 strokes.

Intermediate vs Intermediate : with both players able to rally longer before the error we see “more tennis” but in the end an error will occur after three or four made shots. Average rally length 3 – 5 strokes.

So you can see the rally length capacity shall surely increase with increasing ability, however making an error on the second shot versus the eighth shot does not affect the outcome which still gets recorded as one error. Therefore working with this logic, every ball you don't make an error from is one more opportunity your opponent has to make the error.

HAPPY HITTING

AMT AND JUNIOR CLASSIC TOURNAMENT HELD AT NEDLANDS TENNIS CLUB 2021

Nedlands club to hos tennis ranking titles

Nedlands Tennis Club will be hosting the 2021 GDRE Nedlands AMT & Junior Classic, an Australian Money and Australian Ranking Tournament (Silver Series), from January 18 to 21. There will be $3000 in prize money up for grabs, thanks to sponing rights sponsor Gordon Davi Real Estate, which has support this event for the past three years and has been sponsoring the club for 56 years. Last year the event attracted more than 200 players with top incredible tennis and a great community spirit on display over four days.

The event is highly anticipated by players because there have not been any Australian Ranking Tournaments since March due to COVID-19 restrictions. Club members will be volunteering their time to ensure the event runs smoothly and players and their families have an enjoyable experience. This event is also supported by TennisSA, which has specialist stores in Nedlands and Myaree and online.

Tournament sponsors Alison and Gordon Davies.
